

Inginer mecanic, junior – Departamentul Motosport Pirelli

Position	Location
Planning and Mold Engineer	Slatina

Position purpose

Assure to the business the availability of finished products, in line with the requested efficiency targets.

Responsibilities job description

- Define the daily, weekly and monthly production plan of the Factory, in line with the targets of mix, quantities, timing, stock and costs;
- Ensure the proper planning and scheduling of machinery set-up operations and the availability of equipment/machinery and plant;
- May balance and optimize the available resources (manpower and equipment), in order to contribute to the requested deliveries;
- Support the production supervisors and shift managers during the work-shift;
- Set and issue reports about the production actuals compared with the assigned targets, in order to support the monitoring and full control of the production process.
- MDB (Mold Data Base) management
- Following the curing mold changing activities
- Following the curing mold maintenance and modification activities

Profile requirements

Education: Superior studies – Technical preferred

Competences: Computer skills; Analytical thinking; Attention to detail; Ability to communicate well / networking with other departments

Experience: Newly graduates of Faculty/Master or experience in the field

Others: English language essential

Please send your CV: elena.manea@pirelli.com