Stimată Doamnă Rector/ Stimate Domnule Rector,

Consiliul Cultural Mondial (World Cultural Council), organizație internațională non-profit, cu sediul în Mexic, a lansat apelul la nominalizări pentru ediția 2017 a Premiilor Mondiale în domeniul Științei și Artei (World Awards in Science and Arts): Premiul Mondial în domeniul Științei „Albert Einstein” și Premiul Mondial în domeniul Artei „Leonardo da Vinci”.

Premiul Mondial în domeniul Științei „Albert Einstein” se acordă unei persoane sau unei instituții eminente în domeniile Științelor Vieții (Neuroștiință, Științele Pământului, Biologie, Biochimie, Medicină sau Chimie) sau cel al Științelor Naturii (Fizică, Matematică, Astronomie).

Premiul Mondial în domeniul Artei „Leonardo da Vinci” se acordă unui artist, sculptor, scriitor, poet, cineast, fotograf, arhitect, muzician sau alt artist renumit, a cărui activitate constituie o contribuție semnificativă la patrimoniul artistic mondial.

În măsura în care apreciați că instituția dumneavoastră poate fi nominalizată pentru acest premiu, vă invităm să vă depuneți candidatura până la data de 28 noiembrie 2016, conform instrucțiunilor ce pot fi accesate la următoarea adresă on-line:

Call for Nominations 2017
Albert Einstein World Award of Science and
Leonardo da Vinci World Award of Arts
World Cultural Council

Deadline: November 28, 2016

I cordially invite you to nominate candidates for the World Cultural Council's 2017 World Awards in Science and Arts.

The World Cultural Council is now accepting nominations for the Science and Arts prizes for 2017. Nominees for the "Albert Einstein" World Award of Science should be eminent scientists whose achievements can serve as an inspiration for future generations. Considerations will be given to individuals or institutions in one of the Life Sciences such as Neuroscience, Earth Sciences, Biology, Biochemistry, Medicine, or Chemistry or in one of the Natural Sciences such as Physics, Mathematics or Astronomy. The prize is awarded every year.

The "Leonardo da Vinci" World Award of Arts may be conferred upon a renowned artist, sculptor, writer, poet, cinematographer, photographer, architect, musician or other performing artist, whose work constitutes a significant contribution to the artistic legacy of the world. The award seeks to foster art in all its expressions, rewarding artists whose work is most deserving of world recognition. The prize is awarded every second year.

Nominations for the 2017 "Albert Einstein" and "Leonardo da Vinci" Awards must be submitted prior to November 28th, 2016.

Self-nominations are not accepted. Renomination of previous nominees is possible and encouraged.

How to nominate or re-nominate

To put forward a nomination for the 2017 Awards, the nomination must be duly supported by the curriculum vitae of the candidate. If your institution has previously nominated a candidate for the Albert Einstein World Award of Science or the Leonardo da Vinci World Award of Arts, I would like to cordially invite you to renominate your candidate(s) by sending us an updated renomination dossier.

Please see the latest nomination requirements at:

<http://www.consejoculturalmundial.org/nominations/index.php>

Nominations and renominations are to be made in Word or PDF files, in English, by November 28, 2016.

Our commitment

For more than three decades the World Cultural Council has been recognizing individuals that have made exceptional achievements in science, education and the arts, with the final objective of promoting tolerance, peace and fraternity, seeking to encourage the use of science, art and education to further the well-being of humanity.

The Interdisciplinary Committee evaluates the candidates nominated for the "Albert Einstein", the "José Vasconcelos" and the "Leonardo da Vinci" Awards. Prizes are given to those whose work has had a significantly positive impact on the cultural legacy of mankind. The high level of the jury, comprised of world-renowned and eminent individuals in the above fields, enhances the prestige of the awards.

"The World Cultural Council is committed to the recognition of achievements in scholarship, creativity and altruism. It believes that science, education and the arts hold the key to the future of humanity. They are the building blocks of culture."

Professor Sir Colin Blakemore, President WCC
